What can print do?

- Print is still the important part of media consumption.
- Nowadays newspapers are still the first choice for people who want to be informed and who want to understand the current events.
- Overall print is able to inspire and provide more good tips than TV. Furthermore, it has almost the same score as TV in regard to final purchasing decisions.
- It dictates the trends for products and brands in the area of living.
- In general, print advertising is the second most trustworthy after TV advertising.
- Advertising in Professional journals is considered to be the most trustworthy of all types of media.
- For efficiency it is very important to get the consumers' focus on the advertisements in the print media. Nowadays this attribute is typical only for print.

Media which dictate trends
